Army Training Requirements and Resource System

ATRRS

- ATRRS is a growing, evolving system that depends on its users for timely input of quality data. The data you post to this system forms critical information provided to Congress to support your organization's resources, manpower, and dollars. We take very seriously the Chief of Staff, Army mandate that ATRRS is the system of record for input to training management for the Army. Everything you do as a user of ATRRS and everything we do in managing ATRRS ultimately affects the Soldier or civilian in training.

ATRRS S/H SCREEN

- 3-22. Student Orientation. All TASS training commanders will post their student orientation information under their respective school codes on the school header screen in ATRRS. Information will be current at all times. Units and students may access the student orientation material on the ATRRS homepage, https://atrrs.army.mil. If ATRRS access is not available, mail student information to the student's unit no later than (NLT) 45 days prior to the course start date. Additional copies will be available for students who did not receive their orientation information. Information will include-
- a. Course scope and prerequisites,
- b. Billeting, meals, financial, and support information,
- c. Clothing, equipment, documents, other items required for course attendance, and a listing of prohibited items, and
- d. Post and local community information including appropriate telephone numbers

ATRRS

- When loading a student in ATRRS via A1 application or the RL screen; please ensure you verify the student's home and email addresses prior to loading him/her in ATRRS. It is up to you and the student to ensure their welcome letter is received. Help our schools help you to be informed of what is required when reporting to school.

MEMORANDUM FOR All States and Territories Army National Guard (ARNG)

SUBJECT: Class Numbering Policy for Army National Guard (ARNG) Schools

1. The purpose of this memorandum is to establish a class numbering policy for Army National Guard Training Institutions. The affects of mobilization and modular conversion pop-up classes, and training requirements identified in multiple TRAPS makes it necessary to establish such a policy.

2. Classes built in ATRRS at ARNG schools will adhere to the following class numbering system:

A. Classes built in support of ARPRINT (initial schedule build) will begin start with 0. Example 001.
B. Classes built in support of TRAP 51 will begin with 1, example 101.
C. Classes built in support of TRAP 52 will begin with 2, example 201.
D. Classes built in support of an off-line TRAP will begin with 3, example 301.
E. Classes built in support of mobilization will begin with 4, example 401.
F. Classes built in support of modular conversion will begin with 5, example 501.

3. This will be effective starting with FY 07 classes.

4. The point of contact is Mr Brad Hunt at DSN 327-7323, 703-607-7323 or email: bradley.hunt@ngb.army.mil.

- MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION
- SUBJECT: The Army Centralized Individual Training Solicitation (TACITS), March 2007
  Survey for the FY11 Structure and Manning Decision Review (SMDR).
- 1. IAW AR 350-10, The Total Army Centralized Individual Training Solicitation (TACITS) is the only official solicitation which recognizes the Total Army (Active, Guard, and Reserve Component) training requirements for military and civilian personnel. Participation in the 2007 TACITS Survey will afford your organization the opportunity to identify, project and resource future training needs in Army schools. This year's TACITS will support the FY11 SMDR.
- 2. The TACITS Survey can be found on the Internet. It will be available at the ATRRS Homepage beginning 1 Mar 07 at https://www.atrrs.army.mil/. An ATRRS user ID and Password is not required to access the homepage; however, both ID and Password will be required with an access code in order to enter the TACITS Survey via the ATRRS Channel Directory. Detailed guidance and other specific instructions detailing the changes and operation of this new system are available on the ATRRS Home Page.
